SUBJECT.

In re the prayer of one Venkata char, late Archak of the Sri Venugopalaswamy temple at Bandihalli, Kunigal Taluk, for re-instatement in office.

From

The Dy. Commr. Tumkur District

No. 35 Dated 9th July 1906.

Venkata char, late Archak of the Sri Venugopalaswamy temple at Bandihalli in the Kunigal Taluk has appealed against the orders of the Dy. Commr. of the Tumkur Distt. accepting his resignation and appointing one Srinanga char in his stead on the following grounds:—

(+ Slip A)

1) That he had been attending to the Archak duties of the temple without any complaint from prior to the assumption by Govt of the management of the instn.

2) That he had also been the Acting Sta

of the temple for some time but that the Amildar out of Sectarian differences, appointed a Madhwa Brahmin as Stanik.
3) That, as the appointment of a Madhwa Brahmin as Stanik is Contrary to Mamul and as it is unholy for a Sri Vaishna Brahmin to use in the temple, Vessels etc. cleaned by a Madhwa, he had to tender his resignation which was accepted by higher authorities without any enquiry;
4) That though he performed the Sri Krishna Jayanti Seva in accordance with Sastras & mamul, the Amildar got him fined.

He therefore prays that 1) he may be restored in office 2) That the fine imposed may be remitted and 3) that some amount due to him may be disbursed.

The appeal petition was referred for report to the Dy. Commr. of the Tumkur Distt and that ~~he~~ officer has submitted a detailed report thereon together with the Vernacular records bearing on the Subject.

From the Vern. records it is observed as follows.

Owing to a defect in the right hand of the Archak, The Amildar recommended his removal from the Archakship as he was not qualified to perform Archak's duties according to Sastras on account of this defect. Mr. M. S. Narain Rao, the Then Dy. Commr. who visited the temple declined to retain him as Archak and informed The Amildar that he should send orders for his immediate removal. But before final orders were passed, the pets. tendered his resignation requesting his relief within a week as he did not like to continue to do the Archak duties. This was accepted by the Amildar and ~~appointed~~ a Sri Vaishnava Brahmin duly qualified and conversant with Pancharatra Agama was appointed. This proposal was sanctd. by the Dy. Comm.

The appeal is against this order.

As regards the Stanik-ship of the temple, the Amildar reports that the permanent Stanik Sesha Bhat being absent from duty for a very long time, (Slip D) one ~~Surna~~ Suryanarayappa was appointed to that place. The duties that are performed by the Stanik of the temple are detailed and that officer is of opinion that it is not inconsistent with Pancharatra Agama to get the Stanik duties performed by a Madhwa and states that in view to get the appointment himself, the petr. puts forward this complaint. As regards the Sri Krishna Jayanti Seva, it is reported that the petr. failed to perform the Seva during Sravana and did it in Simha Masa contrary to Manual for which he was fined 2 Rs/. on the 20th Septr. 1904, the Villagers of Bandihalli state that it was usual to conduct the Sri Krishna jayanti Sevas on Sravana Bahula Astami day but the petr. did it against manual during Simha Masa. As regards certain amounts due, it is reported that 13 As odd due to him for having performed certain Hechukatte Sevas were paid to the petr. on the 5th June 1905 and hence no arrears are due to him. The Dy. Commr reports the foregoing points for the orders of Govt. Submitted. The petitioner's prayers are:—

(Paper writer's expenses)

(i) About his reinstatement in Office

(ii) About remitting the fine of Rs 2 imposed on him

& (iii) About the payment of certain arrears alleged to be due to him -

As regards the first prayer, he himself admits having resigned the appointment. The resignation was accepted by the Amildar in the usual course.

In the matter of the imposition of a fine, which is the 2nd point, the manager of the residents of the village clearly shows that the petitioner did act against manual in regard to the performance of Krishna Jayanti Seva, and the result of which was the fine imposed on him -

As regards the 3rd point it is reported that no arrears are are due to him and that the sum of Rs 13-12-0 was already paid to him in June 1905.

Under these circumstances, may the petition be rejected, and an endorsement issued to the petitioner in terms of the Dy Comm's letter?

Enclosure No. V.P. 21

His docket No: 124, dated the 11th July 1905, calling for additional information in re the appeal of Venkatalhar, late Archak of the Sri Venugopalaswami temple at Bandihalli, Kunigal Taluk, against the order accepting the resignation tendered by him for the Archak office.

With reference to the above the undersigned has the

to state that the absented himself from Bandihalli
during the month of Sravana, and failed to perform the Sri Krishnajayanti Sevas in that month, but contrary to manual
he performed them in the month of Bhadrapada, for which he was fined Rs 2/-. The petitioner says that according to Shastras the Sevas in question had to be performed in Bhadrapada alone
as it then corresponded with Simha masa. But the Amildar has arrived at the conclusion that the sevas ought to be performed in Sravana.

With regard to the allegation that the cost of kedekukalle Sevas was not disbursed to the petitioner, the Amildar of the Kunigal Taluk reports that the petitioner was not in the habit of submitting beforehand

-d. Rs for the cost of hechukatle sevas in the months in which they were to have been performed but that he was submitting them after performing the sevas. The cost, however, of such sevas which aggregated to Rs 13-12-4 was paid to the petitioner on the 5th June 1905. Hence no arrears are now due to the petitioner.
